4. CDOT Region II TIP/STIP Regular & Administrative Agenda Item(s)

Mr. Scott Hobson reported CDOT did not have any regular or administrative items for September.

5. PACOG Travel Model Structure and Base Year Model Validation Results Presentation – Maureen Paz de Araujo – HDR, Inc.

Ms. Maureen Paz de Araujo reported that the new Travel Demand Model (TDM) has been fully updated based on 2010 U.S. Census data from the prior model that was using survey information from 1993. The new model is a traditional 4-step model which includes Trip Generation; Trip Distribution; Mode Choice; and Assignment. The next steps in this phase of the model are to apply the model to support the needs of the 2040 Transportation Plan, develop model enhancements, and complete modeling documentation and training.

6. 2040 Long Range Transportation Plan (LRTP) Est. Revenue Projections Update and Preferred Plan & Corridor Vision Discussion

Mr. Hobson reported MPO Staff is working on reconciling projects from the 2030 and 2035 LRTP's to see what was included, not included or has been completed and working on a list to incorporate for the 2040 LRTP. Some areas of Pueblo County were originally, in prior plans, over designated and planned therefore it was suggested a workshop take place to narrow down corridor projects for the 2040 LRTP in the next week.

7. Adjusted Urbanized Zone Area (UZA) Boundaries

Mr. Hobson Reviewed the UZA Boundaries map with the TAC explaining the adjustment to the boundaries was based on the identified 2010 Census urban areas. Motion was made for recommendation to the PACOG Board as presented.

Motion to Recommend: Michael Cuppy

Second: Kristen Castor

Unanimous

8. MPO Staff Report & Updates

- CAC Appointment Notice – Mr. Hobson reported two CAC seats are up for appointment and will be voted on at the October 23, 2014 by PACOG Board. The two existing seats are currently held by Ms. Laurie Clark and Ms. Kristen Castor. The application for the CAC is available on the PACOG.net website as well as the City of Pueblo Planning & Community Development Office. The Application deadline is October 13, 2014 by 5 pm.
